

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Antonyms are words that have opposite meanings.

Find the antonyms in each sentence and write them on the line.

1. I would rather be rich than poor. rich, poor

2. What can I do to turn your frown into a smile? frown, smile

3. I am sick, but the doctor can make me well. sick, well

4. You should try to make friends, not enemies. friends, enemies

5. I want to play outside, but Mom said to come inside. outside, inside

6. The fire is warm on this cold day. warm, cold

7. Is Nana asleep or awake? asleep, awake

8. My brother likes peas, but I hate them! like, hate

9. I thought we would be late, but we were early. late, early

10. I was sure my answer was wrong, but Mrs. Miller said it was right! wrong, right