

Identifying the Adjective of Number Part 3

---

Circle the adjective that tells you how many.

1. Four students will conduct research.
2. Brian bought two pounds of salami.
3. Twelve students will attend the trip.
4. The cat weighs nine pounds.
5. Dante bought twelve roses.
6. The sloth has three toes.
7. Grandma purchased two pints of cream cheese.
8. Ten members joined the group.
9. William purchased three dozen eggs.
10. Twenty sailors set out to sea.