

Identifying What the Adjective Tells Part 1

---

Look at the adjective in bold. What does it tell?

1. There was not much damage after the storm.

- how much
- in what order
- what kind

2. The boy ate four cookies.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

3. Abraham Lincoln was the sixteenth president of the United States of America.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

4. Olivia put some apples in her basket.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

5. There is broken glass on the floor.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

6. There is ample space inside the trunk.

- how much
- in what order
- what kind

7. The hot sun melted the ice cream.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

8. It was a sunny day.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

9. I like spicy food.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

10. The kind man held the door for us.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

11. He lost a substantial amount of money.

- how much
- in what order
- what kind

12. My dad caught fresh fish for dinner.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind

13. I have little doubt that it will rain.

- how much
- in what order
- what kind

14. There was sufficient food available at the shelter.

- how much
- in what order
- what kind

15. This is the second round of the game.

- how many
- in what order
- what kind