

Identifying Correlative Conjunctions

Circle the pair of correlative conjunction in the sentence.

1. Mr. Wong does not have a garden but does have houseplants.
2. Miguel speaks both English and Spanish.
3. The meeting will be held on either Monday or Tuesday.
4. We will serve either chicken or fish at the banquet.
5. He is unsure whether he will pass or fail the test.
6. Maya is not vegetarian but vegan.
7. Her eyes are neither blue nor green.
8. We could not tell whether it was a frog or a toad.
9. She put both lemon and honey in the tea.
10. The weather was not cold but windy.
11. I would rather watch television than listen to the radio.

12. The boy was not hungry but thirsty.

13. I want to eat either ice cream or frozen yogurt.

14. I prefer neither ketchup nor mustard on my hot dog.

15. Whether we win or lose, we will still enjoy the game.