

Identifying the Subordinating Conjunction in a Sentence

Circle the subordinating conjunction in the sentence.

1. The concert won't begin until it is dark outside.
2. The horse returns to the barn whenever it starts to rain.
3. Our new house is bigger than our old house.
4. I don't have school tomorrow since it is a holiday.
5. I enjoy baking a cake whenever it is someone's birthday.
6. I earned more money from babysitting than mowing the lawn.
7. They were late for class because of the traffic.
8. The picnic was over once the rain began.
9. Jill waited to speak until the song was over.
10. The students jumped from their seats when the bell rang.
11. We can play outside as it has stopped raining.

12. Matthew couldn't go to the park because he didn't finish his chores.

13. The swimmers stayed close to the beach as the waves were too rough.

14. We left the stadium because the game was over.

15. Our dog barks whenever someone walks by our house.