

Identifying the Conjunction as Coordinating or Subordinating Part 1

Identify the type of the conjunction in bold.

1. The bus arrived late, yet Corey made it to the game on time.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

2. Mary will sing or dance at the talent show.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

3. We went to the party, but we forgot to bring a gift.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

4. Amy caught three fish, so she cooked them for dinner.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

5. I waited for a while, but she didn't come.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

6. Mike and Keith are best friends.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

7. The picture was too tall or too wide to hang on the wall.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

8. The cat slept on the bed, but the dog slept on the floor.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

9. Sam was hungry, so he ate a snack.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

10. The pelican ate a fish, and it flew away.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

11. The sky became dark, for a storm was coming in.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

12. I am not going to the movies until Lena arrives.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

13. We can see the tree branches more each day as the snow melts.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

14. I don't know whether she will come.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

15. He must be asleep, for there is no light in his room.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction