

Completing a Sentence with the Correct Quantifier Part 1

---

Choose the correct quantifier to complete the sentence.

1. There are _____ cupcakes for the guests.

- some
- every

2. There are _____ choices.

- every
- many

3. I have _____ sweaters.

- many
- each

4. _____ people ran the race.

- A bit of
- Many

5. Would you like _____ pie?

- a couple of
- some

6. Did _____ of the boys try his best?

- not much
- any

7. _____ girls signed up for soccer.

- Many
- Each

8. There are _____ breadsticks left.

- some
- each

9. _____ people voted this year.

- A bit of
- Many

10. You can use _____ berry in the recipe.

- several
- any

11. There are _____ songs I want to learn.

every

some

12. There is not _____ juice in the refrigerator.

many

much

13. I do not want _____ milk in my cereal.

any

several

14. _____ students got the answer right.

Many

Each

15. You did not eat _____ dinner.

every

much