

Change Run-ons into Complete Sentence Part 1 (Answer Sheet)

---

1. I like peas. We are having them for dinner.

I like peas, and we are having them for dinner.

I like peas; we are having them for dinner.

I like peas; therefore, we are having them for dinner.

Because I like peas, we are having them for dinner.

2. Katie is smart. She likes animals.

Katie is smart, and she likes animals.

Katie is smart; she likes animals.

Katie is smart; in addition, she likes animals.

Katie, who also likes animals, is smart.

3. The dog saw a cat. He barked.

The dog saw a cat, and he barked.

The dog saw a cat; he barked.

The dog saw a cat; therefore, he barked.

Because the dog saw a cat, he barked.

4. Carrie has brown hair. Ashley is blonde.

Carrie has brown hair, but Ashley is blonde.

Carrie has brown hair; Ashley is blonde.

Carrie has brown hair; however, Ashley is blonde.

Although Carrie has brown hair, Ashley is blonde.

5. The pink dress is pretty. I like the blue one.

The pink dress is pretty, but I like the blue one.

The pink dress is pretty; I like the blue one.

The pink dress is pretty; I like the blue one.

Although the pink dress is pretty, I like the blue one.

6. I called. You didn't answer the phone.

I called, but you didn't answer the phone.

I called; you didn't answer the phone.

I called; however, you didn't answer the phone.

Even though I called, you didn't answer the phone.

7. We are late. The show hasn't started.

We are late, but the show hasn't started.

We are late; the show hasn't started.

We are late; however, the show hasn't started.

Even though we are late, the show hasn't started.

8. We planted flowers last spring. They bloomed yellow.

We planted flowers last spring, and they bloomed yellow.

We planted flowers last spring; they bloomed yellow.

We planted flowers last spring; eventually, they bloomed yellow.

After we planted flowers last spring, they bloomed yellow.

9. It is dark outside. I see stars.

It is dark outside, but I see stars.

It is dark outside; I see stars.

It is dark outside; however, I see stars.

Although it is dark outside, I see stars.

10. I tried to catch the ball. I dropped it.

I tried to catch the ball, but I dropped it.

I tried to catch the ball; I dropped it.

I tried to catch the ball; however, I dropped it.

When I tried to catch the ball, I dropped it.

11. Sarah is my friend. She is fun.

Sarah is my friend, and she is fun.

Sarah is my friend; she is fun.

Sarah is my friend; in addition, she is fun.

Sarah, who is fun, is my friend.

12. Tanner is sick. He is not at school today.

Tanner is sick, so he is not at school today.

Tanner is sick; he is not at school today.

Tanner is sick; therefore, he is not at school today.

Because Tanner is sick, he is not at school today.

13. That picture is pretty. Hang it on the wall.

That picture is pretty, so hang it on the wall.

That picture is pretty; hang it on the wall.

That picture is pretty; therefore, hang it on the wall.

Because that picture is pretty, hang it on the wall.

14. A storm is coming. Let's go inside.

A storm is coming, so let's go inside.

A storm is coming; let's go inside.

A storm is coming; therefore, let's go inside.

Because a storm is coming, let's go inside.

15. Grandma is baking cookies. They smell good.

Grandma is baking cookies, and they smell good.

Grandma is baking cookies; they smell good.

Grandma is baking cookies; in addition, they smell good.

Grandma is baking cookies, which smell good.