

Identifying Sentences Needing Question Mark Part 2

Choose the sentence that will use a question mark as the end punctuation.

1. Janet asked if we are going to the store now
 Do you know how to get to the office

2. That's your friend Jordan over there, isn't it
 This is the best hamburger I have ever eaten

3. My uncle's plane is going to land at 6 p.m.
 Do you think he will arrive at our house by 7:30 p.m.

4. We are going to be late for the concert
 Can you help me find our seats in the dark

5. I need to borrow your markers, okay
 The picture has to be turned in before we leave class

6. Was that sweater made in the U.S.A.
 I bought these shoes at a store on Williams St.

7. It's a beautiful night tonight, isn't it
 I am afraid that I need to go to the restroom

8. Doesn't your friend Michael live on Genesis Ave.
 There has been an accident on Martin Ln.

9. There is a strange clicking sound coming from the printer
 The computer is broken, isn't it
10. Is there an umbrella that I can borrow
 The piece of paper floated to the ground
11. Will you be finished using the computer by 2:00 p.m.
 There will be a meeting for all parents at 7:00 p.m.
12. The clouds are rolling in, and a thunderstorm is coming
 Your team is going to play against us tonight, right
13. I can't believe that it's Friday already
 When will you be back from the movies
14. I cannot believe that you got to school at 6 a.m.
 Did you eat breakfast before 8 a.m.
15. Ben needs to go first so he can leave, alright
 The telephone has been ringing for over a minute