

Identifying Sentences That Use Comma Correctly Part 4

Choose the sentence that uses comma correctly.

1. "Your pencil fell to the floor" said, Joann.
 Mark asked, "Do you know how to get to the gym?"

2. We are going to, visit Atlanta Georgia next summer.
 My Uncle Marvin lives in Tallahassee, Florida.

3. School starts next year on August 28, 2016.
 Our last day of school this year is May, 25 2016.

4. Before you go to bed, make sure that you turn off the lights.
 After, we got home we ate sandwiches for dinner.

5. We were going to paint the room, but we could not find the brushes.
 I wanted pizza for dinner but, James wanted hotdogs.

6. The small round ball rolled under, the couch.
 The tall, handsome man must be your father.

7. "I think there is, a rabbit under that bush" said Katie.
 "Let's go swimming this afternoon," pleaded Mark.

8. Walter is always so calm, cool, and collected.
 The girl walked proudly swiftly and, courageously to the front of the room.

9. For today's class, you will need your book, paper, and calculator.
 Can you also invite Angela Teddy and Yolanda, to your party?
10. The light, soft and refreshing breeze felt good on my skin.
 The dog ran barking, snarling, and growling toward the mailman.
11. For my birthday, I would like a game a new shirt and some, books.
 We are having sandwiches, chips, and applesauce for lunch.
12. Marie who is Joseph's little sister, is going to be in my class this year.
 Do you know Elizabeth, who is Caroline's best friend, from third grade?
13. Keith, you played an excellent game this afternoon.
 Paul was that your father, over there?
14. Sarah Pope, Principal of Jackson High School, won an award.
 Do you know Peter, Jones Chief of Police?
15. I have always wanted to visit Nashville, Tennessee.
 Do they really ride on trolleys, in San Francisco California?