

Identifying the Subject Part 2

The subject is:

1. what is happening
 the verb
 who or what the sentence is about
 None of these

“Jamie reads a book to Jody.”

2. Here, the subject is:

- reads
- book
- Jody
- Jamie

“I listen to you.”

3. Here, the subject is:

- you
- I and you
- listen
- I

“Simon gave his wallet to Hank.”

4. Here, the subject is a person. It is:

- Hank
- Simon
- wallet
- gave

“The car rolls faster than the bike.”

5. Here, the complete subject is a thing. It is:

- the bike
- rolls
- The car
- faster

“Jennifer likes Adam.”

6. Here, the subject is:

- Adam
- Jennifer
- likes
- None of the above

“She took a picture for me.”

7. Here, the action is taking a picture. The subject doing that action is:

- me
- She
- took
- picture

“Shelly gave the papers to Hannah.”

8. Here, the subject is:

- Shelly
- Hannah
- gave
- the papers

"We drove to the ice cream shop for dessert."

9. Here, the subject is:

- drove
- ice cream shop
- We
- dessert

“They have enough homework to do tonight.”

10. Here, the subject is:

- tonight
- They
- homework
- have

A subject can be a person or a _____. (thing/adjective)

11.

“Dawn’s boat was going really fast in the water.”

12. Here, the subject is:

- boat
- Dawn's
- water
- really fast

Which sentence has more than one subject?

13. Greg holds the pen.
 The fish are swimming.
 Lacy and I went skiing.
 She is so funny.